

TelePhoto Technologies - Putting our Experience to work

TelePhoto, with nearly 60 years of North American Racing industry experience, provides high quality television production to a long list of distinguished customers. TelePhoto's production design is fully scalable for special events and marquis race days. Our Continued Improvement Program re-evaluates these needs and ensures that customer requirements are being met.

TV Production

TelePhoto offers a full suite of best-in-class production tools for any size of track in any market. Utilizing the latest broadcast techniques, equipment and technology our control rooms are professionally designed to meet the individual requirements of each track.

Features

- Innovative TV production facilities and solutions.
- Experienced professional crews available for complete TV production services.
- Professional consultation services.
- Broadcast engineers provide installation supervision and ongoing technical support.
- Focus on your specific television production needs.
- Database friendly and highly customizable graphics package.
- Able to provide a full suite of broadcast cameras including: analog, digital, remote-controlled and robotic cameras, wireless cameras and aerial cameras.
- Full line of analog and digital switchers with digital effects.
- Sizable Audio mixers capable of handling both analog and digital input requirements.
- Capacity for both digital and analog recording systems for slow-motion and instant replay, plus non linear editing systems.
- Distribution of signal to on-track CCTV and satellite uplink.

Benefits

- TelePhoto Continuous Improvement Program (CIP) strives to reduce costs and take advantage of technological developments to maximize the value of the investment.
- Graphics specifically tailored to the needs of each track.
- Products and services are customized to optimize the financial goals and production needs of the track.
- Production crew training program that is unmatched in the industry.
- Industry leading warehouse of replacement equipment and supplies.
- Telephoto's buying power ensures you get competitive pricing, and our extensive purchasing experience and unrivalled vendor contacts ensure the best value.

To learn more about our TV Production call your TelePhoto sales representative.

www.telephotoent.com

What the Horse Racing World is Watching

